Question

Hey my boy
I've one question
Just only one

It was a nice week
All was wicked
And you, you were so pretty

One day I noticed it
I love you
And before that you said that you love me

All was fine
We spent time together
You fetched me the stars from the sky

And one week later it happened
I had to see that you lied
You lied me the stars from the sky

Well boy
I've got only one question

*"Why do you have forgotten me
You had said that you still love me...!"*
