

Princess

Von Crowley

i was like stranger
a wandering knight until i meet you

first time is see you i go on my knees to promise you

everytime you call me my heart will be by your side everytime you fall i will catch you wihtout a word everytime you need help i will be next to you everytime you feel weak i'm the shoulder you can lean on sometimes i fell like crying maybe i fell weak sometimes my heart will be strong everytime it beats

it will beat for you

everytime i think of you my heart will beat with love everytime i miss you my heart's longing for this wish everytime i need you with closed eyes you're here everytime i'm down you are my shoulder to lean on everytime i react strange i'm afraid of losing you let me be your dark knight hold you in my arms hold you tight

fighting for you never gonna give up no matter how hard it will be but in my dreams i want more i want to be your aladin on my flying carpet if you are my jasmine

i want to be the one who woke you up with a kiss if you are snowwhite

i will make a huge danceball to meet you there if you are my cinderella but most of all i want to be the bewitched beast if you are my belle finding my rose waiting for your kiss to break the spell you are my princess that i swear my faith to that sublime over all doubts
