Kapitel 9: Part 8: Donandanghan Kkum

I saw your face.
I felt your hand.
Your smile stopped my heart.
Your eyes have captured me.
The memory will never go away.
My heart is still thinking of you.
My head would displace up
I ride a roller coaster of emotions
And you're alone to blame.

Why do I dream every night?

Every night you see me.
(See me in my dreams.)
Every night you touch me.
(Touch me in my dreams.)
Every night I wake up.
(Wake up from my dreams.)
Every time I lie alone.
Thinking of you and want to dream again.

But this is all a dream.
All this is pure beautiful illusion
I would never awaken.
I want to see the reality.
But alone it's too hard.
I wish you were here.
But the reality is hard.
I escape into my dreams.
Only there can I be with you.

Why do I dream every night?

Every night you see me.

(See me in my dreams.)
Every night you touch me.
(Touch me in my dreams.)
Every night I wake up.
(Wake up from my dreams.)
Every time I lie alone.
Thinking of you and want to dream again.

Why do I dream every night =
Why do I dream every night about you?
I am lost. lost in you.
Nothing works anymore.
Quite sure not for long.
I know no further.
I can not wake up.
I think only of you.
I dream only of you.
Why you?
Why me?
Why?
