

I close my eyes

Von Last_Tear

Kiss you to sleep

I close my eyes
and kiss you to sleep Hoping for you
that you are dreaming sweet

Instead of me but i will keep holding your hand through the darkest night Even when I can't fight

The Feelings deep inside of my head When they are killing me with their cruelness
I can't stand up and let go of your hand

Because no matter what happens to me you're the One who keeps me alive in here

You're the One
who protects me from the pictures in my head forming my personal hell

And I can't gain
but I'm under your spell Even when I try
I can't get free

But I'd never go Because your helpless, when you sleep
And I don't want you to get killed When I'm not around

I close my eyes
Hoping for you

I'm caught in a nightmare
And I can't wake up
But this doesn't matter
As long as you're with me

Let's go to wonderland
And never wake up again.
You said let's fly with a smile so pure that it could ashame the stars

Even I can't see it I know
Your soul is full of scars
Which will never heal

So I close my eyes

No matter what I'll never leave you again.
