

Au Revoir, Mon Cherie

We were never meant to be

Von Last_Tear

Prolog: Connaissance

I wanna bleed out

see the words on paper

unreal like you and me

I wanna shatter this perfect reality

It's a lie

Can't you see my true face?

I scream out your name

So loud, but I just can't make any sound

Like I'm frozen

Caught in this World of Lies

Impossible to escape

Betrayal

this burning feeling in my chest

tearing me apart

day after day

Why did you have to stab my heart?

Why did you leave me alone?

You promised

Can you remember?

I won't forget those sweet words you said

"I love you"

"I'll always be yours"

You were a liar to yourself already

And without taking notice you killed us both
