*broken wings
shattered heart dark infinity
endless night*

I'm such a fool...I hold on at a past that never will be future again.

I lay endless Nights awake.....a whole year now and a little bit longer!
But first, may I introduce myself?
My Name is Camui...less of my friends call me so... just one...one lost forever for me...

Mana...

You are the only reason to live...got out of bed every bloody day!
You are the reason for me to make music...day after day after day with this Band!
Every day with this criticism and trouble about my thing to make music!
Damn...it's my world...music is my world an no one understand it...

What that all for you???
Just a childish game...???
Tell me...was it amusement for you??
A joke on behind my back???
Huh...

Damn...I can't forget you face...your voice and your white, elegant hands...

Why??? Tell me why...

*hidden truth
misty paths
a million droplets of water childhood dreams*

Since I leave your world (or you mine?) I feel incomplete...alone...lost.

On the other side I fell free...free to make my own thing...
But...something feels so terrible wrong...

*wrong ways
lost sins
invisible love
soft touch*

Just three little words...

I miss you!
