

Paradox

All I ever wanted...

Von Shiroy_Haze

I see the sun
the birds that fly
and soft warm air clouds going by

my feet go
step by step
and for a second time goes slow

I close my eyes
to feel the beat
to feel the heat
that echoes in my head

this soft red glow
warm and slow watch the waves go by no one has to try

I gasp for breath
The pain down my chest
I yell the hell out of my lungs I feel the vibrating waves of music flowing through me
bursting me
This unnatural power is healing me for seconds and I cry and scream those tears of joy.
and all anger, frustration and pain
dissolves in this dusty air right in front of you

My belly hurts
I can't stop laughing
I cry and smile
and roll over the floor

I close my eyes
and feel your soft breath your warm embrace Let's stay here forever.

and I wish I could reach out for the moment This bliss could last forever even if a storm blasts heavy this beauty will never end this love will never end...
